SWISS EXCELLENCE IN HOTEL MANAGEMENT EDUCATION

IHTTI, School of Hotel Management in Neuchâtel city, is one of the most established and successful hotel management schools in Switzerland. For more than 25 years we have prepared our students for management careers in the international hospitality industry. IHTTI Alumni are the strongest credential, working in key management positions all over the world.

The IHTTI campus consists of a modern building located in the heart of Neuchâtel. The lobby and the rooms are freshly renovated. Neuchâtel is a pulsating Swiss University city. Its atmospheric Old Town is extremely attractive, with the golden beauty of its architecture, its many cafés and restaurants and its trendy bars. With its upscale street markets and hip designer boutiques Neuchâtel has the flavour of a town actively seeking influences from beyond its own borders.

Over the years IHTTI has built strong links to local institutions like the Swiss Federal Statistical Office (FSO), the University library and the local hotel industry. These links provide students with additional support throughout their studies.

IHTTI offers a wide range of world-class academic programmes in Hospitality and Design management. The BA Degree is awarded by the University of Derby (UK), recently ranked by the Times Higher Education Supplement amongst the top five British Universities for hospitality and tourism education. Due to the limited number of students IHTTI can welcome it is able to provide a very individual and personal service to each student.

As a member of the Swiss Education Group, IHTTI is 100% Swiss owned which ensures its students receive top quality education with a distinctive Swiss style that is renowned worldwide.

IHTTI offers two intakes each year in February and September. For students who need to improve their English language skills prior to beginning the academic year, the school provides an English Foundation programme.

The Following Diplomas and Degrees are offered at IHTTI:

- Certificate in Food & Beverage Management
- Swiss Diploma in Hotel Operations Management
- Swiss Higher Diploma in International Hospitality & Design Management
- British BA (Hons) Degree in International Hospitality & Design Management
- Postgraduate Diploma in Hospitality & Design Management
