SUMMER PROGRAMS 2010

July 4 - 17:
Arts & Humanities Program

July 18 - August 7:
Brown University - St. Stephen's School
Pre-College Program

Study and live in Rome, this summer!

St. Stephen's is an independent high school located in Rome, Italy. Dedicated to academic excellence and the development of the individual, the school's rich tradition of providing superior education in a small setting has earned it a prestigious position in the international academic community since 1964.

All summer classes and activities are held on the grounds of the St. Stephen's School campus, located in an idyllic neighborhood on the Aventine Hill, or on site in the city. Students accepted to the summer programs live in the dormitory of St. Stephen's School.

Arts & Humanities

Summer Program

July 4 - 17, 2010

This two-week summer program is dedicated to students ages 14-16. Encouraging a harmonious balance of intellect and creativity, the Arts & Humanities Summer Program at St. Stephen's School offers students the opportunity to explore their academic and artistic talents in a program tailored to their individual interests. Students in this program are enrolled in one core course, a language class (either Italian or Latin), and one or more elective courses. Summer 2010 core courses include Renaissance Art, and Ancient Roman Topography, a St. Stephen's School signature course. Both courses are held on-site around the city of Rome, allowing students to visit the significant monuments and sites firsthand, and to attain an in-depth knowledge of the eternal city. The 2010 elective courses include Creative Writing, 2D/3D Studio Art, Music Appreciation, and Dance. Student exhibitions and special performances will be held at the conclusion of the summer school session. A trip to Pompeii and other sites in the south of Italy is included.

High school and rising 9th grade students from around the world are invited to participate in the summer enrichment programs at St. Stephen's School in Rome. The two programs, taught in English, are open to boarding and day students, and offer a focus on the arts, classics and the humanities, with a significant extramural component, a hallmark of the St. Stephen's School experience. The courses will provide students with a challenging experience that will open their hearts, eyes and minds while fostering an appreciation, understanding, and love for the historical and cultural patrimony of Rome and Italy.

Additional Offerings

St. Stephen's School believes in taking full advantage of the unique location of the school, and thus students in both programs will have the opportunity to immerse themselves in Italian culture. Walking tours, Italian cooking classes, and sports activities complete the summer programs' extracurricular offerings. Evening activities include supervised visits to cultural events around Rome, and in-house "movie nights" featuring classic Italian films and modern films with Italian or Roman themes.

BROWN

Brown University - St. Stephen's School

Pre-College Summer Program

July 18 - August 7, 2010

This three-week session is a joint pre-college program offered by St. Stephen's School and Brown University, and is open to students at least 16 years of age. The pre-college program fully immerses students in the study of Roman and Italian history and culture. All students in this program are enrolled in one core course, a language class (either Latin or Italian), and one or more elective courses. Summer 2010 core courses include Introduction to Ancient Rome, Secrets & Symbols of Roman Art & Architecture: Renaissance through the Baroque, and Modern Italy. The 2010 elective courses include Digital Photography, Italian Music Appreciation, Italian Literature, and Views of Rome, a drawing course. Student exhibitions will be held at the conclusion of the summer school session. This program's weekend trips include visits to Pompeii and the south of Italy, Florence and Orvieto.
