

New York Summer Study 2011: FAQs

Who is eligible to apply?

There are no prerequisites for admission. To be eligible, students must have a high school diploma or equivalent. Enrollment is open to college students, professionals in the field, and career-changers who are interested in developing their knowledge of art and the international art market. Many of our MA students take the Summer Study courses to experience Sotheby's Institute of Art before making the longer commitment to the MA program. International students can complete all of our summer programs while visiting the U.S. on a tourist's visa.

When do courses start?

Session I : May 31 – June 23

Session II: July 5 – July 28

What are the hours?

Morning Classes: Monday - Thursday 10:00am – 12:30pm

Afternoon Classes: Monday - Thursday 3:00pm – 5:30pm

Fridays are set aside for field trips, Institute-wide events, and on-your-own activities in the city.

Where will the classes be held?

The classes will be held at Sotheby's Institute of Art, 570 Lexington Avenue, New York. However, all classes incorporate site visits around the city to facilitate firsthand learning.

How much does it cost?

The tuition cost per 4 week session is $3,750. There is a one-time $50 registration fee payable at time of registration. These costs cover all lectures, entrances to museums etc. and course materials. Please read the registration form carefully regarding the refund policy. Scholarship funds are not available for summer study.

How do I register?

Interested students should complete the registration form and read the registration information guidelines available on the Website. Once the registration is received students should expect to receive an email confirmation within one week.

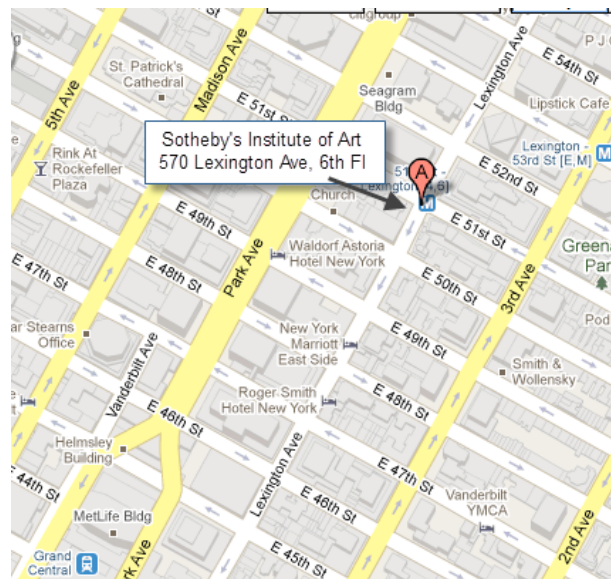

Are the Summer Study courses accredited?

Courses are offered on a non-credit basis. Students who wish to take a course for credit should inquire about requirements from their home institution. It is advisable to seek approval prior to taking the course as accreditation is at the discretion of individual institutions. Note: Any student wishing to obtain credit must notify the Institute before class starts to be eligible.

Are there written assignments or exams?

For students who have received approval to take the course for credit, there will be some mandatory field trips and research on Fridays, and there may be an exam or written assignment due at the end of the course.

Do students receive a Certificate of Completion?

Yes, all students will receive an official Sotheby's Institute of Art Certificate of Completion. These will be handed out on the last day of the course.

How do I find accommodation?

Accommodation recommendations can be found on our website.
