Academia Uruguay

Compared to the enormous city of Buenos Aires, Montevideo is a smaller, more quiet and laid-back city. Nonetheless, it offers a wide range of cultural activities all-year round, ranging from museums, theatre, concerts, popular festivities to international exhibitions and shows. Its location on the riverfront is spectacular and the pedestrian walkway along the river is a must for locals and visitors. In summer, beaches are crowded.

Academia Buenos Aires

Buenos Aires has recently been called "the cool capital of the world". Buenos Aires attracts young and old people from around the world, attracted by the mix of Latin Culture and European legacy, the bohemian lifestyle, an impressive cultural scene, its nightlife, etc. combined with one of the lowest big-city crime rates in Latin America.

"Montevideo has been the starting point for a long trip through Latin America. I took the crash course to master the basics and get around on my own. The course I took at the academy was perfect, just what I needed!"

Chantal Mercier

"Half of my family is from Latin America and I could not say more than Hola a few weeks ago. This course has been enormously helpful and I am grateful to the staff and especially my teacher Paola for her patience and encouragements."
